

It's Tee Time in Tennessee!

@ Through the Green

Please mark your calendar and plan to attend our Ninth Annual Law Enforcement Torch Run Golf Tournament. The Metropolitan Nashville Police Department and Special Olympics invite you to participate in an event that will help provide many young individuals a chance in life to build up their self esteem and confidence while learning the fundamentals of teamwork and enabling them to interact with the community.

Special Olympics Tennessee provides year-round sports training and competition in a variety of Olympic-type sports for children and adults with intellectual disabilities. Through the power of sports Special Olympics is creating a better world by fostering the acceptance and inclusion of all people. Special Olympics promote unity, acceptance, empowerment, inspiration, joy, dignity, transformation, courage, strength, pride, inclusion, confidence, and fun. There are no fees for athletes to participate in Special Olympics and over 14,500 athletes are registered with Special Olympics Tennessee.

Join us for a fun-filled event and help make a difference in a life.
